

Te Pūaha o te Ako 2023-24 Outputs and Impact Summary

Te Pūaha o te Ako is CSI's multi-disciplinary social impact knowledge and practice hub. As responsive resource sharing for community sector needs, Te Pūaha is Foundation North's koha to the community sector.

Our outputs

In the 2023-24 financial year we provided open source sector support via Impact and Insights resources, Te Pūaha Talks, and a podcast series in collaboration with HuiE!

7 Impact and insights resources

Resources covered the following topics:

- Food sovereignty and equitable food systems drawing on research on food system inequities and solutions.
- Shifting culture and power through mana-enhancing partnerships, with case studies from The Philanthropic Landscape Volume II - CSI and JRMT's collaboration funded 50% through TPOTA.
- Funding advocacy for impact, based on a collaborative CSI and JRMT report highlighting advocacy as a change tool.
- Funding community innovation, drawing on FN commissioned reports and lessons from the South Auckland Community Innovation Fund and back office pilots.
- Understanding impact in philanthropy. Three resources sharing findings from Foundation North's inquiry into impact: foundations, leading practice, and Te Tiriti o Waitangi considerations.

10 Diverse Te Pūaha Talks

Webinars were wide-ranging and included:

- Ngahere: a series of four workshops presenting a range of tools for hauora (wellbeing) including Hā (breath) moments of guided mediations.
- Future Search: exploring how this transformative system change collaboration process works in practice.
- Human-centered communications: delivered in collaboration with the Community Comms Collective.
- Your Sphere of Influence: shared pathways for addressing climate anxiety by creating a plan for positive change and was Te Pūaha's contribution to the Auckland Climate Festival.
- Ngahere for Teams: builds on the Ngahere series with four workshops offering a range of tools and processes to foster wellbeing and connectivity.

5 Podcast episodes of Tātou Tātou with HuiE!

- Tātou Tātou is a collection of interviews with community leaders sharing their challenges and highlights with a focus on how they manage their wellbeing and support others to do the same.

6 Haumanu Community of Practice sessions

- Haumanu: we co-created a community of 15 practitioners from diverse sectors working for social impact and change. The community shared 5x online hui and 1x in person wananga.

2 Funder conversations

- Funder activation: extending support to funders through convening and connecting, conversations covered impact and reporting well and advocacy.

Our reach

Te Pūaha Talks:

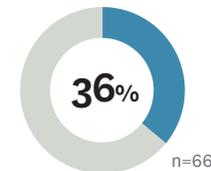

664 registrations

from 355 organisations

195 attendees

Of webinar registrations were Foundation North grantees

The sector's appetite for tools to foster wellbeing was strong. The most widely accessed resource was:

Ngahaere for Teams - nurturing our connectivity webinar series recordings

1,122 unique visitors

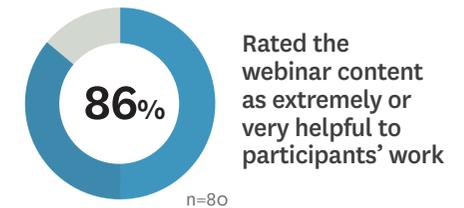

Over the year the Te Pūaha home page received significant traffic:

2,419 page views
914 unique visitors
2.5 average visits per user

Our impact

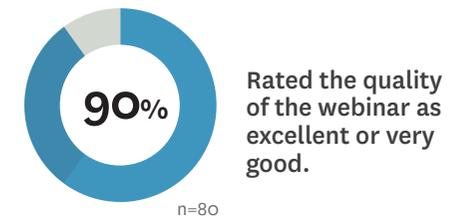

Sector feedback

Te Pūaha Talks participant feedback indicates that the content is highly valued and meeting the sector's needs:

Rated the webinar content as extremely or very helpful to participants' work

50% of Te Pūaha Talks survey respondents found the webinar content to be extremely helpful.

Rated the quality of the webinar as excellent or very good.

60% of Te Pūaha Talks survey respondents rated the webinar to be of excellent quality.

Love that resources and recordings being shared. Beautiful kaupapa. - Ngahere webinar participant

I work as an individual practitioner in community settings often with people I don't know. I am finding these talks beneficial to thinking about how I meet others. - Ngahere for Teams webinar participant

I loved the framing of this around whakapapa, agency and what I can do and would love to hear more ... There were some amazing nuggets around climate action and de-colonisation and connecting with te taio. - Your Sphere of Influence webinar participant