Belong Aotearoa	Migrant Experiences in the time of COVID Survey Report 2020	Migrant communities	Auckland	COVID-19 offered a pressing opportunity for Belong Aotearoa to further look at the plight of newcomer communities and amplify their voices. A first phase of our wider research, this report covers the findings from a “COVID-19 Impact on Migrant Communities in New Zealand Survey” we undertook in September 2020. It focuses on the responses of 160 people born overseas and currently living in Auckland, including recent migrants, sharing their lived experiences in the time of COVID.
HuiE! and Volunteering NZ	Hauora Survey 2021 Just before Aotearoa went into its second nationwide lockdown in August 2021, HuiE! and VNZ checked in with more than 600 tangata whenua, community and voluntary organisations to see how they were coping.	The tangata whenua, community and voluntary sector	National	A survey of Aotearoa New Zealand’s community sector on the impacts of COVID-19. Also included focus groups and fono. Over 600 respondents across the country. Follow up to the Time to Shine survey in 2020
